++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Staying cold this week, then more unsettled by the weekend.

This Evening and Tonight:
A largely clear and dry night, with widespread frost and the risk of isolated freezing fog patches. Then beginning to turn cloudier into the early hours, with winds picking up to the west. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Thursday:
A frosty start with lingering fog in a few places. A dry but increasingly cloudy day following, with wintry showers across southwestern areas later on. Feeling cold, with strengthening winds. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Largely dry and cold Friday before slowly turning milder and wet Saturday and Sunday, as bands of rain and snow move eastwards across the country. Risk of coastal gales throughout.
